STOLEN PARAGRAPHS

The Houston Post denies a widely circulated report that in the summer time the negroes of Washington had the asphalt out of the streets and eat it on wheat cakes in lieu of syrup. To tell the truth, while the story sounds reasonable enough, melted asphalt doesn't sound exactly palatable.

A man who lives in Atlanta City was badly injured in an accident to an electric swing. We had been laboring under the impression that permanent residents of Atlanta City were too busy wrestling the coin from visitors to have any time for amusing themselves.

Score one for the poor umpire. A Kansas man who assaulted the master of the field has been lodged in jail. But aren't they rather poor patriots in Kansas to permit such a thing? You are entitled to three guesses as to which thing is meant.

The police broke up a poker game in progress between some gilded young men of New York the other day and found only $1,200 on the table. It's a sure thing no real spender such as Reggie Vanderbilt was in the party.

A New York woman who heads a cult for dress reform strolled along Fifth avenue clad only in cheesecloth the other day. If she'll do that in winter time we'll believe she is really serious.

No, Best Beloved, the Holy Jumpers' organization was not designed primarily to avoid the payment of hotel bills, but we don't know what it's real purpose is.

Carrie Nation says she is going to stay in Pittsburg until she reforms it. It is apparent that Carrie is lost to Kansas.

A. Livingston has the agency for the famous A. B. C. beer, the finest on the market. A phone call will land you the goods.

The commissioners of White Pine county have authorized the issuance of $80,000 in bonds to pay for the construction of a court house, county hospital and jail.

The smelter loss, because of the drop in copper, has been estimated at fully $5,000,000. The plants were loaded up with many tons of the metal.
